

my favorite part of this week was when i learned how i to cut in a straight line and when my mom came for the pictures she took pictures and basically told us why she get so dressed just to go out and i liked doing the mosaic this was fun and it took me back to the skittle project and had fun with the team and when lenise helped me a was basically my model and sante helped me figure out how to make a pocket. That was my favorite part of this week we'll favorites so yea janesha